

Performed the following:

- Create a Project Directory in your system
- Copy the HTML Web Pages as provided
- Create a ReadMe.md file
- Initialize the git locally in your project folder
- Create a Code Repository in your Github account
- Add the remote origin to your local repository
- Add the source files to the local repository
- Check status on git
- Commit the code with a message
- Push the code to the remote repository on Github